Pumpkin-Spice Makeup

Yes, it's a thing, and it looks great on all skin tones, says makeup artist Patrick Ta, who created a custom lip color for Priyanka Chopra Jonas by combining terra-cotta and cocoa hues. For your eyes and cheeks Ta recommends a warm brown palette. He applied his own Monochrome Moment Velvet Blush in She's Seductive, available at Sephora later this month.

Greener Perfumes

From reusable packaging to cleaner ingredients, the perfume world is embracing sustainability. "While there is still much to be done, it's a journey fragrance houses and manufacturers of fragrances are committed to," says the Fragrance Foundation president Linda G. Levy.

REUSABLE BOTTLE

This super-slim bottle can be refilled at more than 220 Lancôme counters across the U.S.

Manuka Honey

This type of honey is in everything from cleansers to eye creams. "Manuka is more antibacterial than traditional honey, plus it's extremely nourishing," says wellness expert Dr. Amy Shah. We love this nonsticky balm, which can be used anywhere that needs some TLC.

Potent Toners

New formulas deliver skin-boosting ingredients like retinol and vitamin C in one swipe. To prevent irritation, avoid combining them with other treatments, says dermatologist Dr. Rosemarie Ingleton.

Feathered Brows

Forget those perfectly microbladed arches that you've seen on Instagram. Now pros are choosing a more natural look, says makeup artist Kale Teter, who works with Ashley Graham. Use a pencil to fill in any sparse spots, then sweep the hairs upward with a brow spoolie, and you're done!

Liquid Shadows

Why spend precious minutes on eye makeup when you can apply it in seconds? These liquids go on as easily as lip gloss. Just dab on your lids, then use your ring finger to blend it in a "windshield wiper motion," says Giorgio Armani Beauty makeup artist Tim Quinn.
